In order for the ISSI to issue a Certificate of Eligibility, Form I-20, we require that you supply the information on this form. You will need the Form I-20 to apply at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate for a student visa. Therefore, it is important that you submit a Declaration and Certification of Finances (DCF) that is complete and accurate. Any missing information will cause a delay in issuing your immigration document.

Instructions:

- To make sure that all information is clear to us, please type or print your responses.
- Make sure that all sponsor information and documents are accurate, complete and original.
- If any question does not apply to you please indicate so by writing N/A in the allotted space.
- Submit this completed DCF to your Northeastern program office at the address listed above.
- If you have any dependents you will be bringing to the U.S. with you, please fill in the supplemental form located on our website here: <http://www.northeastern.edu/issi/immigration/forms.html>
